ANDREW J. DOSSETT FORMER RESIDENT OF CAMERON IS DEAD

COMPRESS OWNER AND WACO
CITIZEN DIES IN TEMPLE,
SATURDAY, DEC. 31.

Andrew J. Dossett, 50 years old, well known Waco business man died in Temple Saturday morning December 31st, 1921. He had been ill for several weeks and had been in the sanitarium at Temple for the past four weeks.

Mr. Dossett was born in Meridian, Miss., but had spent most of his life in Texas. He went to Waco from Cameron about five years ago. He was secretary and general manager of the Exporters and Traders' Compress and Warehouse Company, Waco, president of the Cameron Compress Company; president of the Quana Compress Company; president and general manager of the Texas City Compress and Concentration Company, and president of the Shipside Density Compress Company, Galveston.

He was a director of the Chamber of Commerce here, having been elected to that position soon after he came to Waco.

In Masonic circles Mr. Dossett was very prominent. He was a 33 Mason, Texas Consistory No. 1, Galveston; second ceremonial master of Karem Shrine Temple, Waco; both a Scottish and a York Rite Mason; a member of Temple Commandery No. 1, Temple. He was president of the First National Bank of Cameron for several years and also was one of the organizers of the Cameron State Bank, in which institution he was vice president when he first moved to Cameron. He purchased the Cameron compress and was operating the same at the time of his death. He was also a member of the board of trustees of the Cameron High School for many years. Cameron relatives who survive him are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Henley and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Brown. Mr. Brown is superintendent and manager of the compress company at Cameron and Rosebud.

WILL ASK ELECTION FOR COMMISSION FORM GOVERNMENT

PETITION WILL BE CIRCULATED
ASKING CITY COUNCIL TO ORDER ELECTION.

The City Council will be asked to order an election to be held in February at which time the commission form of government will be voted on in Cameron.

Recently the club heard a report from the committee appointed to investigate this form of government in which it was recommended that the city adopt the city manager form of commission government.

Friday night a committee was appointed to circulate a petition.

J. T. Parna, Chairman of the Civic Improvement committee, suggested the need of a ladies rest room in Cameron and reported the ladies of the Civic League willing to co-operate with the club in such an undertaking. On motion from J. W. Coleman, seconded by J. D. Dobbins, the matter was left up to the civic improvement committee with instructions to confer with the ladies of the Civic League, see what they expected of the club and to report back as soon as possible.

Giles L. Avritt called attention to the fact that lots of rubbish was being thrown in ditches along public roads and streets and suggested that such practice should cease.

The matter was disposed of by requesting the aldermen present to get the city marshal to stop this practice.

The subject of a commission form of government was brought up by S. A. Cottle and the fact brought out that the club had recommended that an election be called in February to see whether or not the people want this change in form of government. Upon motion from J. B. White, seconded by S. A. Cottle the chair appointed a committee of three to circulate a petition, asking for such election. The following committee was appointed by the chair:

J. B. White, chairman, J. W. Coleman and S. A. Cottle.

A letter was read from A. A. Hacker of Brenham to S. A. Cottle, telling how their Commercial Club put over their recent paving bond issue and suggesting that Cameron be able to do the same thing. No action was taken.

MINERVA REFINERY NEAR COMPLETION; 200 BARRELS DAILY

PIPE LINE WILL CARRY 2000
BARRELS DAILY TO REFINERY.

Increased production by the bringing in of several good wells in the Minerva shallow pool during the holidays with one well drilling to the 1200 foot pay sands the field is attracting oil talent from all the fields in the country. The Owens Refinery at Minerva is about on the eve of completion and will be in operation in about two weeks. The main pipeline into the field from Minerva is all laid and the pipe line crew is working on lateral lines to the many producing leases. The filed now boasts of 14 producers on the following leases. McCamey et al number one and two Henry. Texas Plains Oil Syndicate number one Neihous. Newell and Ferguson number one, two and three Neihous. Lee Oil Company number one, two and three Neihous. Fogel and Marsh number one Moore. Oklahoma Bell Oil Company number one and two Ben McClellan and number one Robert Isaacs. The well drilled by the Westheiners, of Ardmore on the Robert Issac, 100 acres was sold back to Issac for a small consideration and the well is said to have nearly paid for itself since the transaction. The Neihous lease leads the field having 7 producers with not a hitch in the development of the lease, this lease has one of the most up to date powers for pumping the wells of Ferguson and Newell and was built at a cost of several thousand dollars. There are ten rigs drilling at different depths, some of which will be completed this week. An estimate of the probable production that will be available for the refinery when the plant is ready for running the crude has been placed at around 200 barrels per day. It is believed that by early summer with new development that 500 barrels per day will be had. The present two inch line into the field has a capacity for 2000 barrels of crude per day which will be sufficient line for the field for some time to come.

WATER AND LIGHT RATES.

The report made as a preliminary statement of the work of the Commercial Club committee by chairman Giles L. Avriett, in solving the public utilities problem furnishes a satisfactory basis for settlement of many phases of the matter. The progress of the committee is most gratifying to the people for it denotes an awakening to public needs and is a decided step forward in meeting the demands for civic betterment.

So far no consideration has been directed to the adjustment of rates for water and lights other than the fact that no increase will be made in light rates as a result of an agreement to install more power producing units at the plant of the Cameron Water, Power and Light Company.

The reduction in light rates announced by the Cameron Water, Power & Light Company, to become effective December 1, 1921 will not bring the cost to consumers down to a satisfactory level. The Company in reducing the rate raised the first consumption minimum from 20 to 50 kilowatts so that 30 additional watts must be used before the second consumption is reached. The reduction, however will afford some relief to consumers.

The Herald desires to suggest that no satisfactory settlement can be made of the utilities problem without an adjustment of water and light rates. Prices paid for lights, power and water in Cameron have formed the basis of grievance out of which has come the demand for settlement of the Utilities Problem, and unless the public interest is safe-guarded in this particular the work of the committee can accomplish no satisfactory permanent result.

Into the settlement of the Utilities Problem should also enter the proposition of better street lighting. In this connection the city should be enlisted and made to show some dependable degree of interest in municipal welfare.

Little or no interest has been shown by the City government in the plans to effect settlement of the matter and but for the efforts of the club committee no program would have been made in answering the very pointed demands of the people. The engineers report for which $318 was paid by the city has been declared by the citizens committee as affording no dependable plan for municipal ownership so that in the event present negotiations fail an additional survey will be necessary if the people are to realize justice at the hands of the public utilities.

In the meantime it is important that an early adjustment of the entire matter be made.

Some of those returning to State University were Misses Mildred Chambers, Louise Green, Emma Atkinson of Maysfield, Messrs. Howell brothers, Charlie Frank Green, Joyce Cox, Elliot Atkinson, Price Cross, Jack Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lesovsky and children returned Monday evening from a week's trip in South Texas. They spent Xmas day with Mrs. Lesovsky's parents at Caldwell, then went on to Beville and spent a week with Mrs. Lesovsky's sister.

Mrs. W. A. Morrison and children spent one day last week in Bryan visiting Mr. and Mrs. Willard Chambers.

Mrs. R. H. Redfield and daughter, Isabel and Ruth and Mrs. Frank Redfield and son, Robert, spent Friday in Thorndale visiting Mrs. Ed. Rasberry.

Mrs. John Gandy, formerly of Cameron, now of Temple, was married last week to Mr. Vaughn.

Could use 4 or 5 more families as renters either on the halves or third and fourth.

WEEK OF ENTERTAINMENT FOR CITY BEGINNING HERE SUNDAY.

The city of Cameron is to be given a rare treat all next week beginning with Sunday in a course of lecture entertainments by Dr. Herbert Yeuell who has been appearing before large throngs throughout Texas during the past year. His Passion Play of Oherammergan is said to have no equal on the American platform. His "Ben Hur" was recently given at Austin before the Ben Hur Shriners at the Scottish Rights Cathedral, concerning which John H. Tobin Potentate writes in enthusiastic appreciation.

Besides these Dr. Yeuell will carry the audience to the site of Ancient Babylon and reconstruct the world's most remarkable city.

His eight trips to Europe furnish him with two other great entertainments "Sunny Italy and her Romanes" and "France Yesterday and Today."

From the world's art galleries he will illustrate and tell the story of "Quo Vadis" as portrayed by Henry Sienkiewicz.

A distinctively American lecture will be given on "The Wonders of America."

All of these except "One night in Babylon" will be profusely illustrated with beautiful pictures colored correctly, projected from high power dissolving machines upon a satin curtain. The pictures are taken by Mr. Yeuell.

He was a guest in the home of Auton Lang, the Christ of the Passion Play. His Ben Hur was in part collaborated by the author General Lew Wallace. Each entertainment is complete in itself.

Dr. Yeuell comes to this city with the highest possible commendations. Wherever he has been reports are that the largest buildings have overflowed.

The matter was taken up by the Chamber of Commerce and many leading citizens for the good of the people of Cameron.

An offering will be received each night at the close of the entertainment to reimburse Dr. Yeuell and the people of Cameron are asked to join in at the start to make this project a community-wide success.

A stand will be put up in the City Park and plenty of seats provided for all who come.

The series will start Sunday night with Dr. Yeuell's Famous lecture "One Night in Babylon."

at the primaries."

What does Mr. Thomas mean? Does he mean that Mr. Mayfield is marked A one (A1) in the Railroad Blue Book? Is Mr. Thomas taking the blanket off the horse? Has he just slipped it back to the withers? Does he intend later on to pull it clear back to the tip of the tail? We are curious to know. Mr. Thomas is now in a position to give the people valuable information. He is known as a very courageous man in the political arena. Let it come, Mr. Thomas, for you are now discussing a vital issue.

Again over at Carthage, Mr. Thomas set himself up as the Wilson leader. He said that he endorsed all that Woodrow Wilson had done. Let me ask Mr. Thomas—"Do you endorse his action in vetoing the Volstead National Prohibition Law?" I do not.

"Do you endorse his action in approving the Esch-Cummins Law?" I do not. When he was right, I endorsed him. When he was wrong, I differed from him and said so. I supported him about as often as you. I do not accord you the right to assume leadership of the Woodrow Wilson forces. Senator Culberson has some claims.

And, from what you said at Longview, Mr. Mayfield may have some claims in that direction and you might find his option filed somewhere.

These are vital questions and you might take the time to answer them and give us your views. I now invite you to do so.

Then again I ask you: "Do you endorse the Decree of Deflation?"

entered by Secretary Houston and Governor W. P. G. Harding in May 1920." As the self assumed Wilson leader in Texas, you are entitled to boast of the benefits of this Decree of Deflation, if you endorse it, and have not recently relinquished the Wilson leadership.

Now please answer these queries. I ask them in good faith.

Cullen F. Thomas

Asks for your Vote

In the Democratic

Primaries, July 22, 1922

FOR

UNITED STATES SENATOR

For a score of years he has fought in the democratic ranks in Texas as a supporter of men and of measures that he believed would serve best the interests of the plain people of Texas. Office for himself he never sought, but spent of his time and energy and money that the causes he believed in might prevail.

He urged the abolishment of the liquor evil when too few men in Texas dared attack such a strong well-grounded element of corruption in the political and industrial and the moral life of the state. He saw his principles prevail.

He believed that women should have every political, every legal, every social right that men possess, in order that they might the better protect their homes and assure the future of their children. He has seen the old prejudices against women swept away.

He has always believed that the best elements that are in men and women are the ones that should be appealed to when it comes to asking for public office, which is and always must be a public trust if our democracy is to remain as the heritage of a free people.

A man whose personal and professional life in Texas, and he has always lived in Texas, is without stain or blemish, and known as an open book. Mr. Thomas may well call upon the men and women of the state for their support for the high office to which he aspires.

But Mr. Thomas does not ask your support on his past record as a worker in the ranks of a progressive democracy of Texas and the Nation. He sees clearly the fact that there are not few but many and complicated questions of national policy and practice that will have to be settled and settled right by Congress itself as the supreme law-making body of the land.

He believes that no public office should be for sale, and that clean politics is and must always be necessary for the welfare of the people in whose interest and for whose protection governments should be set up and maintained. Specifically, if elected, and opportunity can be made, he will vote for the expulsion of Newberry and all the tribe who buy their way to public office.

He believes that the rights of the states should be safeguarded from unnecessary encroachments of federal authority. The best way to do this is for the states themselves to do their full duty in all matters that concern the welfare of their citizens, and then federal interference will not be so necessary.

He believes that governments, national and state, should be simplified, and bureaus, boards and commissions abolished unless there be the fullest warrant for them to the end that the tax burden be lifted from a people scarcely now able to bear it. His vote for simplicity and economy may be counted upon always.

The government must have revenue, even under the strictest economy, and tremendous sums must be raised even for generations to come to meet ordinary costs and the costs of the world war waged, past, present and future. Mr. Thomas believes, and will so vote, that taxation may be imposed upon those most able to bear it.

To this end he favors a graduated income tax, a progressive inheritance tax, an excess profit tax, and also such measures that would impose tax burdens upon those most able to bear them rather than upon the rank and file of the people who would have to pay a sales tax and the high tariff multiplied many times that the republican administration endeavors to set up.

He favors every agency that may be established by private initiative or be set up by the government if necessary, to bring producer and consumer together, and is opposed to exchanges where speculators gamble on the products of the farmers' sweat and toil.

He wants to see established for the benefit of the farmers of the nation a credit system that will meet crop and livestock production needs as the Farm Loan system meets long time credits for farmers and the Federal Reserve system serves the commercial world. Until a system is set up farmers may suffer as they did last year and the year before of a financial system not suited to their needs or even possible to be administered in their behalf.

He believes that the Esch-Cummings Act and the administration of the railroads under it are wrong in principal and in practice and that the real producers of wealth of the country, the farmers, the wage earners in the industries and on the rail roads have been placed at the mercy of the handful of men who control the railroads of the country, with what result to the farmers especially the business of the country knows to its cost.

These are but some of the outstanding issues of the day upon which Mr. Thomas makes himself clear, and on every other also he is with the people rather than with privilege, and his voice and his vote should he become a member of the Senate, will always be with the plain working people of Texas, whose representative he would consider it an honor to be.

CAMERON IS HOST TO MEMBERS OF OIL ASSOCIATION

The Milam County Oil Men's Association, held one of the most successful meetings since the completion of the organization on Thursday evening June 19th. The meeting was a booster meeting held on the lawn of the Milam county court house and was attended by 250 citizens of the county.

The program was in charge of Tom Henderson, Jr., chairman of the Entertainment Committee and was well arranged. An address of welcome to the oil men was made by the Hon. J. B. White of Cameron, who spoke on the hardships of the wildcatter and pioneers. The response to the wellcome was made by The Hon. H. C. Meyer, mayor of Rockdale, one of the directors of the Milam County Oil Men's Association.

Hon. Tom Henderson, Sr., delivered a stirring address on the oil situation of the county and stressed on the necessity of co-operation of every citizen of the county.

Former Mayor Sam Hearrell spoke on the aims and purposes of the association and what the association would accomplish for the County and communities, and invited on behalf of the association any citizen of Milam county to become a member of the association.

The program was closed by Mr. Ben Hunt of Mexia, who addressed the oil men on a good talk along the line of co-operation. Mr. Hunt stated that he was very much impressed with the prospects of deep oil in Milam county, and stated that the Milam County Oil Men's Association was a step in the right direction and one of the big things that has been accomplished in this part of the country.

In a few words by W. B. Ferguson, president of the association, the big crowd was invited to refreshments daintily served by the ladies of the Methodist church, consisting of several kinds of sandwiches and punch. Music was furnished by the Cameron Concert Band. Along with the serving of the refreshments the ladies presented those who attended the meeting with a souvenir of a small vial of refined lbe oil.

The association now has 250 members scattered throughout the county and is growing at rapid pace. A publicity campaign which is being planned by the association for the immediate advertising of the oil possibilities of the Milam County fields will be started soon. It is the plan of the association to broadcast to the world the great resources that are lying dormant within the county.

The next regular membership meeting of the association will probably be held in Thorndale in the southern part of the county. The organization is county wide and the membership is composed of oil and business men from all sections of the county.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the association held in Rockdale on Thursday evening at 8:30 p. m.

H. M. Hefley, cashier of the First National Bank, returned Tuesday from Oklahoma where he has been for the past several days at the bedside of his father, L. J. Hefley who has been seriously ill. A telegram here Saturday called Mr. Hefley to Oklahoma to be with his father. His friends in Cameron will be glad to learn that he is improved. Mr. and Mrs. Hefley left Cameron several weeks ago to go to Oklahoma to visit with their children. They went by auto. Mr. Hefley was taken ill on the way and suffered several attacks of heart trouble after reaching Oklahoma. Mr. and Mrs. Hefley will be in Oklahoma for several months to visit.

CITY MOURNS DEATH PIONEER WOMAN AND LOVED BENEFACTRESS

A gloom and hush fell upon Cameron last Saturday afternoon when news reached our little city that Mrs. C. H. Yoe had passed away.

It is fresh in the minds of every Cameron loving citizen, the memorable eighth day of March 1921 when the auditorium of the great Yoe High School building was overflowing twice that day at its formal opening and presentation of this magnificent building by Mrs. Yoe herself.

It was at this time surrounded by the Mayor, the trusted trustees of Mrs. Yoe and the school board, that Mrs. Yoe was introduced to beautifully by Miss Ada Henderson and Mrs. C. H. Yoe made the greatest gift to the city.

Hon. T. S. Henderson made the dedicatory address saying in part that this day marked the greatest day in the history of Cameron.

The magnificent building was taken as a theme and a tribute paid its material worth that the very best of everything was put into its construction and there was absolutely nothing lacking.

A word picture of the boy, Charlie Yoe was very beautifully given. A boy born and reared in a village near Frankfort on the Rhine, his dreams of the new country, his coming over in early manhood and becoming, not in part, but wholly a true American citizen.

And it was in the city of Cameron nearly fifty years ago that Charlie Yoe chose as his helpmeet a "Texas Wild Flower," Carrie Meyers, and all along life's journey they worked and toiled together and for the past twenty years their magnificent plan, now complete, had been forming, developing and growing bigger until this great day of its full completion.

A tribute to his high business integrity, his never-wavering purpose in life was beautifully expressed and in closing, Mr. Henderson called upon the citizenship of Cameron, and as Mr. and Mrs. Yoe had dedicated themselves and given this magnificent gift to Cameron and all her posterity so let us each and every one, dedicate ourselves to do something, great or small, in consecrated effort to promote, upbuild our little city of Cameron, morally socially and intellectually.

With this review let us turn with bowed head of love and appreciation to the wife, Caroline Meyers Yoe, daughter of Frederick and Rose Elizabeth Meyers, who were among Milam County's early settlers and who are most pleasantly remembered by many of the oldest citizens of this day.

It would be depriving this sketch of part of its interest and robbing a good woman of her just deserts, not to add that much of the success which Mr. Yoe attained was due to the kindly counsel and efficient aid which he always received at the hands of the lady whom he selected years ago for a companion and who during all those years bore him a faithful and affectionate companionship. The funeral services were held in the parlor of her own home, under the direction of J. H. Sapp. The service was conducted by Rev. H. R. McFadyen, of the Presbyterian church, her pastor for the past four years or more.

The music was in charge of Mrs. Alex Triggs. The songs used were "Come Ye Disconsolate" and "There is Land that is Fairer than Dav." A solo, "The End of a Perfect Day" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Triggs.

A great company of people of every walk in life were present to pay the last honors to one who had made a great gift to the city in the C. H. Yoe High School building.

The floral offerings were most profuse and costly—the entire grave was completely covered with the beautiful flowers of every kind.

The active pall bearers were: Messrs. A. N. Green, Robert McLane, C. W. Lawrence, W. H. Triggs, Drs. A. S. Epperson, M. C. Sapp, Judge John Watson and Hon. T. S. Henderson, Sr.

The honorary pall bearers were the City Officials, some of whom were present: Mayor J. B. White, Messrs. Simmie Burns, Oxsheer Smith, C. R. Phillips, Vince Lucas, city marshal, George Richards, deputy marshal, and others. Also the present school board and one former member of the board, as follows: Mesdames Graham Gillis, W. O. Triggs, Messrs. Dr. John Denson, E. A. Wallace, Frank Lesovsky and Ben Atkinson.

Her pastor speaking to the company said in part as follows:

"We feel that today we are to speak for a great company as we stand here. As her pastor and as a friend we wish to pay her a tribute. We did not always agree but we learned to disagree and still have our friendship one for the other. It is worth while to have associations with those who have initiative and do things."

"We speak for old friends, friends who have known Mrs. Yoe a great deal longer than I. We speak for the citizens of this city. We speak for the boys and the girls of this city who have been blessed by the gift of our adequate school building. We speak for that great company of young people who shall in the years to come go trooping through the doors of the Yoe High School, every one of them a recipient of her bounty."

"Mrs. Caroline Yoe was born in Cameron, Feb. 8th 1850. When she was a few days past twenty-one she was married to Mr. C. H. Yoe. Her people came from Germany."

"Mr. Yoe was born in Germany. The two families, Meyers and Yoe came from the same parish in Germany but did not meet till they reached America. A year after the marriage a little girl came, the one and only child. She died at six years of age."

"We have often heard Mrs. Yoe speak of her little girl, but as the years passed her little girl, but as the years passed her husband came to fill more and more completely her life. The world she knew was the world her husband revealed to her. She knew the world through him. After walking together for nearly 50 years some five years ago Mr. Yoe was taken from her. She kept his memory green with devotion, her pastor sometimes feared was not good for her own soul. In the land of India is one of the most beautiful buildings in the world, the Taj Mahal, erected as a mausoleum and a memorial by an emperor in honor of a faithful wife. In our little city a beautiful and costly building stands as a memorial to a husband erected by a faithful wife. To all times it will be a declaration to an age of easy divorce that there is still faithfulness to be found in the earth. Some years ago as Mrs. Yoe lay desperately ill in Temple she said to me, 'Why does not God let me die and be out of my misery?' I said, 'We are immortal till our work is done. Perhaps God has some great thing yet for you to do.' Her work has not done! She had in her heart the vision of the building she would erect in Cameron."

She lived to see it completed and in use. She was a great builder. She levied tribute on all the information she had gained in her travels to make the house what she desired it to be. She would have nothing but the best and it cost her a great deal of money. It should be a fitting memorial to her husband, and it should be something the city would be proud of, and it cost her money. It cost her twice as much as she thought, but she had faith in her ideals and did not stagger at the cost. We give her the fruit of her hands and let her own works praise her in the Gates. We would not have such had it not been for her zeal. We would never tax ourselves to furnish a school building such as the Yoe High School building.

"She has received the blessing even as she lived. She has found the meaning of the passage; 'He that would be greatest among you let him be servant of all.' As she served she came to have a new and a growing interest in and love for the youth of the city. The interest she showed in the boys and the girls of the city came from her heart."

"In her recent illness she often said: 'I do not want to die.' This was not simply a selfish wish. Sitting in this room in which we hold this service, in confidence she told me she was going to build the Presbyterian people a church. On a second occasion she volunteered the same information. The financial depression found her heavily involved as a result of what she was already doing. She was not able to build the church as she planned, but she was desirous of administering her own estate, and she was full of plans for the future. She said: 'I want to live.' Mrs. Yoe has been for a number of years a member of the Presbyterian church. For some time she has not attended services. We have often read the Bible and prayed with her both at home and in the hospitals. She was very appreciative, thanked me and asked me to come back again, and her expression was always the same, 'I do love readings and prayer.'"

Mrs. Caroline Yoe died in the Temple Sanitarium June 24th, 1922 at 12:40 o'clock p. m. She was 72 years 4 months and 16 days old. She leaves two brothers, Mr. Charlie W. Meyers of Rosebud and Mr. Lu Meyers of Cameron.

EVAN'S Corner

This corner is devoted to business, politics and general news.

Of the five senses possessed by the human family, that of seeing is, by far the most precious. A man blind is very pitiful. A poor fit in glasses is worse than no glasses at all. The quality of the lens is of great importance. And if your frame does not fit the face you do not get the full benefit of your correction. The truth of the matter is that there is a great deal more to the proper fitting of glasses than most people think.

The Needles Institute of Optometry, of Kansas City, is conducting a course of Optometry in Waco and I am taking this work to better quality myself to give you good service in fitting glasses. If you need a double vision lens, let me fit you with the invisible Kryptoks. This is the Perfect lens; there is no scale to come off or blur.

Early in the Senatorial race the Dallas News was against Cullen Thomas. Now he is being given a good deal of space. Frankly I am getting shaky. Should the News come out for Cullen, I am afraid will have to change my mind. Too, the Dallas News has knifed Governor Neff at every opportunity. I think Neff will beat the whole push put together.

SUMMER RADIO.

Radio is very uncertain during the summer due to the increased atmospheric or "Static" and for this reason more practice and experience is necessary than in winter.

In the different parts of the set are studied and improved, summer radio will be very interesting.

One important detail of any radio set and even more of a summer set is the aerial system. The aerial should consist of a single wire, which is most efficient type, about eighty feet long, strung between two points as high as possible, within reason. The total length of the aerial including the lead in wire should be from 126 feet to 160 feet. All aerials should have a protector of some type, preferably the vacuum type.

In the tuning of a summer radio set, loose coupling and sharp turning is necessary to do away with as much atmosphere as possible.

RADIO STRAYS.

The American Legion Post of Cameron has erected the aerial for their station which will be installed in the next few days. This aerial consists of one wire supported by two poles forty-four feet long on top of the Legion hall which makes the total height about a hundred feet. A counterpoise ground system, extending under the aerial and consisting of three wires will be used in addition to the usual ground. This station will be equipped with power amplifiers and a large loud speaker and will have a range which will cover the country.

At the recent public speaking in the city park the writer noticed how inaudible the voices of the speakers were at a short distance from the speaker. If some association such as the Commercial Club would purchase a portable power amplifier and magnifying loud speaker it could be rented at public speakings and the voices could be increased to a volume sufficient for all purposes. The speaker would be more than willing to pay a small fee for the extended range of their voices and the audience would be better pleased with the new conditions.

Radio is finding a great use in aiding police in the drive against crime. In many of the large cities the police men are equipped with radio sets with which they can keep in communication with headquarters. In other cities reports of crimes are broadcasted and picked up by amateur stations over the country.

At the Westinghouse broadcasting station in Newark, New Jersey, bed time stories are broadcasted by "The man in the moon." This is the name by which W. F. B. McNeary reads bed time stories every Tuesday and Friday at seven o'clock.

Several new stations are being erected in Dallas and have been heard by radio amateurs in Cameron while testing out. They will start broadcasting in the near future.

Several simple receiving sets have been installed in Cameron and are receiving the broadcasts sent out by different stations. "The Radiophone" would like to have lists of stations received in Cameron which it will publish with the name of the owner of the station.

The storage battery for use on a radio set should have as large an amperage capacity as possible. It should be specially designed for radio work or it will be found that it will not hold up satisfactorily.

EVEN CAREFUL CALOMEL USERS ARE SALIVATED.

Next Dose of Treacherous Drug May Start Misery for You.

Calomel is dangerous. It may salivate you and make you suffer fearfully from soreness of gums, tenderness of jaws and teeth, swollen tongue and excessive saliva dribbling from the mouth. Don't trust calomel. It is mercury; quicksilver.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tonic for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

If you take calomel today you'll be sick and nauseated tomorrow; besides, it may salivate you, while if you take Dodson's Liver Tonic you will wake up feeling great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate. (Adv)

Pains Were Terrific

Read how Mrs. Albert Gregory, of R. F. D. No. 1, Blufford, Ill., got rid of her ills. "During . . . I was awfully weak . . . My pains were terrific. I thought I would die. The bearing-down pains were actually so severe I could not stand the pressure of my hands on the lower part of my stomach . . . I simply felt as if life was for but a short time. My husband was worried . . . One evening, while reading the Birthday Almanac, he came across a case similar to mine, and went straight for some Cardui for me to try.

"I took it faithfully and the results were immediate," adds Mrs. Gregory. "I continued to get better, all my ills left me, and I went through . . . with no further trouble. My baby was fat and strong, and myself—thank God—am once more hale and hearty, can walk miles, do my work, though 44 years old, feel like a new person. All I owe to Cardui." For many years Cardui has been found helpful in building up the system when run down by disorders peculiar to women.

Hot Water Each Morning Puts Roses in Your Cheeks

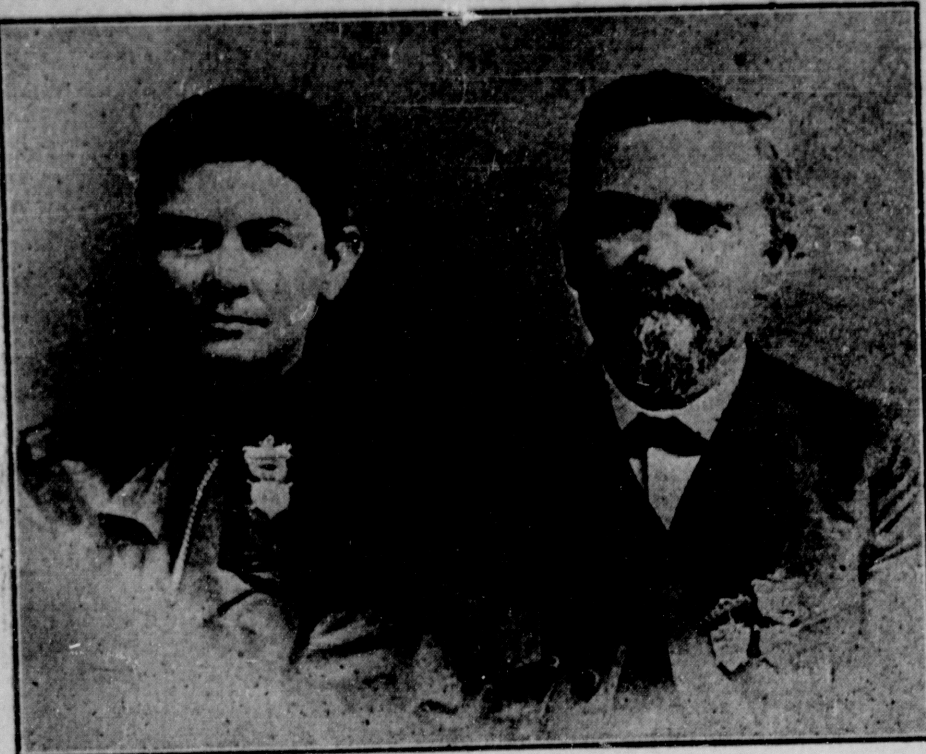

To look one's best and feel one's best is to enjoy an inside bath each morning. To flush from the system the previous day's waste, sour fermentations and poisonous toxins before it is absorbed into the blood. Just as coal, when it burns, leaves behind a certain amount of combustible material in the form of ashes, so the food and drink taken each day leave in the alimentary organs a certain amount of indigestible material, which if not eliminated, form toxins and poisons which are then sucked into the blood through the very ducts which are intended to suck in only nourishment to sustain the body.

If you want to see the glow of healthy color in your cheeks, to see your skin get clearer and clearer, you are told to drink every morning upon arising, a glass of hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it, which is a harmless means of washing the waste material and toxins from the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels, thus cleansing, sweetening and purifying the entire alimentary tract, before putting more food into the stomach.

Girls and women with sallow skins, liver spots, pimples or pallid complexion, also those who wake up with a coated tongue, bad taste, nasty breath, others who are bothered with headaches, bilious spells, acid stomach or constipation should begin this phosphated hot water drinking and are assured of very pronounced results in one or two weeks. A quarter pound of limestone phosphate costs very little at the drug store but is sufficient to demonstrate that just as soap and hot water cleanses, purifies and freshens the skin on the outside, so hot water and limestone phosphate act on the inside organs. We must always consider that internal sanitation is vastly more important than outside cleanliness, because the skin pores do not absorb impurities into the blood, while the bowel pores do.

Women who desire to enhance the beauty of their complexion should just try this for a week and notice results.

CAMERON IS HOST TO MEMBERS OF OIL ASSOCIATION

The Milam County Oil Men's Association, held one of the most successful meetings since the completion of the organization on Thursday evening June 19th. The meeting was a booster meeting held on the lawn of the Milam county court house and was attended by 250 citizens of the county.

The program was in charge of Tom Henderson, Jr., chairman of the Entertainment Committee and was well arranged. An address of welcome to the oil men was made by the Hon. J. B. White of Cameron, who spoke on the hardships of the wildcat and pioneers. The response to the well-come was made by The Hon. H. C. Meyer, mayor of Rockdale, one of the directors of the Milam County Oil Men's Association.

Hon. Tom Henderson, Sr., delivered a stirring address on the oil situation of the county and stressed on the necessity of co-operation of every citizen of the county.

Former Mayor Sam Hearrell spoke on the aims and purposes of the association and what the association would accomplish for the County and communities, and invited on behalf of the association any citizen of Milam county to become a member of the association.

The program was closed by Mr. Ben Hunt of Mexia, who addressed the oil men on a good talk along the line of co-operation. Mr. Hunt stated that he was very much impressed with the prospects of deep oil in Milam county, and stated that the Milam County Oil Men's Association was a step in the right direction and one of the big things that has been accomplished in this part of the country.

In a few words by W. B. Ferguson, president of the association, the big crowd was invited to refreshments daintily served by the ladies of the Methodist church, consisting of several kinds of sandwiches and punch. Music was furnished by the Cameron Concert Band. Along with the serving of the refreshments the ladies presented those who attended the meeting with a souvenir of a small vial of refined lbe oil.

The association now has 250 members scattered throughout the county and is growing at rapid pace. A publicity campaign which is being planned by the association for the immediate advertising of the oil possibilities of the Milam County fields will be started soon. It is the plan of the association to broadcast to the world the great resources that are lying dormant within the county.

The next regular membership meeting of the association will probably be held in Thorndale in the southern part of the county. The organization is county wide and the membership is composed of oil and business men from all sections of the county.

There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the association held in Rockdale on Thursday evening at 8:30 p. m.

CITY MOURNS DEATH PIONEER WOMAN AND LOVED BENEFACTRESS

A gloom and hush fell upon Cameron last Saturday afternoon when news reached our little city that Mrs. C. H. Yoe had passed away.

It is fresh in the minds of every Cameron loving citizen, the memorable eighth day of March 1921 when the auditorium of the great Yoe High School building was overflowing twice that day at its formal opening and presentation of this magnificent building by Mrs. Yoe herself.

It was at this time surrounded by the Mayor, the trusted trustees of Mrs. Yoe and the school board, that Mrs. Yoe was introduced to beautifully by Miss Ada Henderson and Mrs. C. H. Yoe made the greatest gift to the city.

Hon. T. S. Henderson made the dedicatory address saying in part that this day marked the greatest day in the history of Cameron.

The magnificent building was taken as a theme and a tribute paid its material worth that the very best of everything was put into its construction and there was absolutely nothing lacking.

A word picture of the boy, Charlie Yoe was very beautifully given. A boy born and reared in a village near Frankfurt on the Rhine, his dreams of the new country, his coming over in early manhood and becoming, not in part, but wholly a true American citizen.

And it was in the city of Cameron nearly fifty years ago that Charlie Yoe chose as his helpmeet a "Texas Wild Flower," Carrie Meyers, and all along life's journey they worked and toiled together and for the past twenty years their magnificent plan, now complete, had been forming, developing and growing bigger until this great day of its full completion.

A tribute to his high business integrity, his never-wavering purpose in life was beautifully expressed and in closing, Mr. Henderson called upon the citizenship of Cameron, and as Mr. and Mrs. Yoe had dedicated themselves and given this magnificent gift to Cameron and all her posterity so let us each and every one, dedicate ourselves to do something, great or small, in consecrated effort to promote, upbuild our little city of Cameron, morally socially and intellectually.

With this review let us turn with bowed head of love and appreciation to the wife, Caroline Meyers Yoe, daughter of Frederick and Rose Elizabeth Meyers, who were among Milam County's early settlers and who are most pleasantly remembered by many of the oldest citizens of this day.

It would be depriving this sketch of part of its interest and robbing a good woman of her just deserts, not to add that much of the success which Mr. Yoe attained was due to the kindly counsel and efficient aid which he always received at the hands of the lady whom he selected years ago for a companion and who during all those years bore him a faithful and affectionate companionship. The funeral services were held in the parlor of her own home, under the direction of J. H. Sapp. The service was conducted by Rev. H. R. McFadyen, of the Presbyterian church, her pastor for the past four years or more.

The music was in charge of Mrs. Alex Triggs. The songs used were "Come Ye Disconsolate" and "There is Land that is Fairer than Day." A solo, "The End of a Perfect Day" was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Triggs. A great company of people of every walk in life were present to pay the last honors to one who had made a great gift to the city in the C. H. Yoe High School building.

The floral offerings were most profuse and costly—the entire grave was completely covered with the beautiful flowers of every kind.

The active pall bearers were: Messrs. A. N. Green, Robert McLane, C. W. Lawrence, W. H. Triggs, Drs. A. S. Epperson, M. C. Sapp, Judge John Watson and Hon. T. S. Henderson, Sr.

The honorary pall bearers were the City Officials, some of whom were present: Mayor J. B. White, Messrs. Simmie Burns, Oxsheer Smith, C. R. Phillips, Vince Lucas, city marshal, George Richards, deputy marshal, and others. Also the present school board and one former member of the board, as follows: Mesdames Graham Gillis, W. O. Triggs, Messrs. Dr. John Denson, E. A. Wallace, Frank Lesovsky and Ben Atkinson.

Her pastor speaking to the company said in part as follows:

"We feel that today we are to speak for a great company as we stand here. As her pastor and as a friend we wish to pay her a tribute. We did not always agree but we learned to disagree and still have our friendship one for the other. It is worth while to have associations with those who have initiative and do things."

"We speak for old friends, friends who have known Mrs. Yoe a great deal longer than I. We speak for the citizens of this city. We speak for the boys and the girls of this city who have been blessed by the gift of our adequate school building. We speak for that great company of young people who shall in the years to come go trooping through the doors of the Yoe High School, every one of them a recipient of her bounty."

"Mrs. Caroline Yoe was born in Cameron, Feb. 8th 1850. When she was a few days past twenty-one she was married to Mr. C. H. Yoe. Her people came from Germany."

"Mr. Yoe was born in Germany. The two families, Meyers and Yoe came from the same parish in Germany but did not meet till they reached America. A year after the marriage a little girl came, the one and only child. She died at six years of age."

"We have often heard Mrs. Yoe speak of her little girl, but as the years passed her little girl, but as the years passed her husband came to fill more and more completely her life. The world she knew was the world her husband revealed to her. She knew the world through him. After walking together for nearly 50 years some five years ago Mr. Yoe was taken from her. She kept his memory green with devotion, her pastor sometimes feared was not good for her own soul. In the land of India is one of the most beautiful buildings in the world, the Taj Mahal, erected as a mausoleum and a memorial by an emperor in honor of a faithful wife. In our little city a beautiful and costly building stands as a memorial to a husband erected by a faithful wife. To all times it will be a declaration to an age of easy divorce that there is still faithfulness to be found in the earth. Some years ago as Mrs. Yoe lay desperately ill in Temple she said to me, 'Why does not God let me die and be out of my misery?' I said, 'We are immortal till our work is done. Perhaps God has some great thing yet for you to do.' Her work has not done. She had in her heart the vision of the building she would erect in Cameron."

The Cameron Herald begs to add its word of commendation and praise to this noble woman.

She lived to see it completed and in use. She was a great builder. She levied tribute on all the information she had gained in her travels to make the house what she desired it to be. She would have nothing but the best and it cost her a great deal of money. It should be a fitting memorial to her husband, and it should be something the city would be proud of, and it cost her money. It cost her twice as much as she thought, but she had faith in her ideals and did not stagger at the cost. We give her the fruit of her hands and let her own works praise her in the Gates. We would not have such had it not been for her zeal. We would never tax ourselves to furnish a school building such as the Yoe High School building.

"She has received the blessing even as she lived. She has found the meaning of the passage; 'He that would be greatest among you let him be servant of all.' As she served she came to have a new and a growing interest in and love for the youth of the city. The interest she showed in the boys and the girls of the city came from her heart."

"In her recent illness she often said: 'I do not want to die.' This was not simply a selfish wish. Sitting in this room in which we hold this service, in confidence she told me she was going to build the Presbyterian people a church. On a second occasion she volunteered the same information. The financial depression found her heavily involved as a result of what she was already doing. She was not able to build the church as she planned, but she was desirous of administering her own estate, and she was full of plans for the future. She said: 'I want to live.' Mrs. Yoe has been for a number of years a member of the Presbyterian church. For some time she has not attended services. We have often read the Bible and prayed with her both at home and in the hospitals. She was very appreciative, thanked me and asked me to come back again, and her expression was always the same, 'I do love readings and prayer.'"

Mrs. Caroline Yoe died in the Temple Sanitarium June 24th, 1922 at 12:40 o'clock p. m. She was 72 years 4 months and 16 days old. She leaves two brothers, Mr. Charlie W. Meyers of Rosebud and Mr. Lu Meyers of Cameron.

The truth of the matter is that there is a great deal more to the proper fitting of glasses than most people think.

Flood Control Plans Discussion; Meeting Here On July 7th

(By Burton Davis.)

Milam county, whose eastern border is formed by the middle reaches of the Brazos River, and whose fertile farm lands are traversed by the winding courses of the Little River and San Gabriel, tributaries, is keenly interested in any possible means of preventing the recurrence of such disastrous floods as that of 1913, that of September and that of this spring. It costs Milam county around a quarter of a million dollars in crops, livestock and property damage each time the Brazos and its partners in crime go on a rampage over the river bottoms, according to Hon. Tom. S. Henderson of Cameron.

Mr. Henderson is a leading spirit in a movement to break the Brazos to harness and make it stay in the shafts.

A rodeo of river-tamers was held at Bryan, Brazos county, a few weeks ago, Brazos River Reclamation Association was organizer there to work for a survey of what is needed to subdue the Brazos and to demand state and federal aid in this undertaking.

Milam County was not represented at Bryan, because of bad roads. Mr. Henderson was unable to attend the organization meeting. The Cameron Commercial Club, however, determined to lay the project before the people of Milam County and link them with the reclamation association. A meeting was called for Friday, June 23, to which federal and state engineers and the Chamber of Commerce of Rockdale, Thorndale and Milano, the other principal towns in Milam County were invited. Because of the unforeseen absence from Cameron of both the president and the secretary of the commercial club, Vice President W. W. Chambers postponed the meeting until July 7.

How vitally interested Milam is in any practicable plan to tie the arms of the Brazos in the future was outlined for The News today by Mr. Henderson.

"Milam County has not only the main Brazos to overflow along the eastern county line, but it has that treacherous tributary the Little River, winding through the heart of the county, and its feeder, the San Gabriel, which enters the Little river just above Cameron. Just over the county line to the northwest, in Bell county, three forks come together to form the Little River: the Leon river, the Lampasas and Salado Creek. Further up Cowhouse Creek runs in, he explained.

"These streams have a watershed of some 8,000 acres. All run through a hill country that periodically is visited by torrential rains, sometimes nearly amounting to cloudbursts. When these streams go on a rampage and meet the main stream of the Brazos, usually swollen by the same widespread rains, they go out of their banks, and Milam County has another disastrous flood to add to its score against the Brazos system.

"The watershed of these streams was once covered with a fine growth of hardwood: white oak, ash and the like. They were practically denuded of timber by short-sighted settlers. As a result a heavy rain run into the water courses like water into the gutters of a paved street. There is no forest to soak up the rain and hold it, letting it seep gradually and harmlessly into the streams.

"We are paying now for the near-sightedness of our predecessors in this country. They did not understand or realize the effect deforestation would have in causing floods in the future, and for that reason we cannot be bitter toward them. Hardwood timber was sold at low prices, was chopped down and used for all purposes, and much of it was wasted or just burned to get it off the land, so that crops could be planted.

Some of the pursuits of the future will be the replanting of some land to timber. I would not advise putting good farm land back into timber, but there is much that is not fit for farming. The ravines, the rocky hillsides, and the bluffs along the rivers and creeks should be reforested. That will help greatly to check floods.

"It is too early to talk about definite plans for reforestation, but a comprehensive plan for the future must, I think, work in harmony with the efforts of the state forestry association to replant trees.

"It is of course the main idea of this movement to check floods by impounding waters near the heads of streams, to form lakes for irrigation in the West Texas country where it gradually from streams where the water is not needed for irrigation.

"Fortunately those tributaries of the Little River, which form the peculiar problem of Milam, Bell, Williamson, Lampasas, Coryell, and parts of Comanche, Eastland, Erath, Hamilton and Callahan Counties, all run through gorges or ravines that could easily be dammed up to form lakes. I believe most of the upper tributaries of the Brazos can be similarly impounded at no vast expense, considering the benefits in irrigation development up there and flood prevention lower down.

"Mine is of course only a layman's opinion, but it is the one generally held by laymen who are organizing this movement. We are calling in experts and engineers to tell us whether our ideas are correct and practicable, and if not, why not, and what plans should and can be used.

"The purpose of the meeting at Cameron on July 7 is to bring those experts here so that the people of Milam county can learn at first hand what can be done to stop flood losses.

"Those of us who are calling this meeting believe, and I think the engineers bear us out, that the real solution of the Brazos problem is not so much in building levees along the lower river as in controlling the flow of the tributaries near the headwaters. Both measures will have to be taken to make either effective, of course.

"Cleaning out the channels of the streams and straightening some of the worst bends would also be involved in a comprehensive plan.

"All this is going to cost a lot of money. We will have to ask for state aid and probably federal aid.

"But not doing it will cost a lot more, in a shorter time than some of us realize. Milam County alone lost, conservatively, a quarter of a million dollars in crops, stock and improvements destroyed by last September's flood. There was another terrific loss in 1913. This spring the crop loss was not so great, since crops were young and could be replanted. However they are subject to all the ills that a late crop is heir to, particularly the boll weevil menace to late cotton. The spring flood was longer than usual, lasting more than 40 days, making the farmers lose the most precious part of the year, as well as their early plantings.

"Approximately 60,000 acres in Milam county alone was overflowed last September and again this spring. The December 1913 flood was about as widespread.

"To guard against another such flood Milam county has only about ten miles of levees in two levee districts. These broke during the 1913 flood and had not been repaired when the floods of September and April, last, came down. The ten miles of levees were built for about $60,000 to $75,000 though they would cost far more at present rates. They could, if repaired, be relied on to prevent overflows from any ordinary rises in the river, but against the big ones they are practically useless.

Another end toward which the Cameron conference will work is an improvement in river observation and flood forecasting service on the tributaries of the Brazos and Little rivers. Official observers are provided only at widely separated points on the Brazos, and none at all on the smaller forks, yet information of a cloudburst, heavy rain or freshet is many times invaluable to farmers and resident lower down on the river, Mr. Henderson said.

For that reason Dr. B. Bunnemeyer, in charge of the weather bureau at Houston and river forecaster for the Brazos, Colorado and other South Texas streams, has been invited to attend the conference.

"If the weather bureau doesn't allow enough money to maintain observation stations on all streams likely to cause flood damage, we want to help him get the appropriation needed. We will have our representative at Washington get behind the matter and provide the funds," Mr. Henderson declared.

Most of the 50,000 acres overflowed in Milam County this spring has been replanted, rather more to corn than to cotton. Mr. Henderson said. We are perforce, raising a lot of Johnson grass," he added, "and some hay is being put up from it, making the best of a bad bargain."

The conference at Cameron will be held at 8 o'clock on the night of July 7, it was announced today by J. R. Hays, assistant secretary of the Commercial Club, acting in the absence of Mr. Skelton.

A. J. Livingston, living near Ashland City, Tennessee, says: "I feel like going from house to house and telling the people about Tanlac." For sale by New Cameron Drug Company and druggists everywhere.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or drive the worms, and the child will be in perfect health. Pleasant taste. 10¢ per bottle.

It is a powerful and scientific combination of sulphur and other healing agents for the relief and cure of diseases of the skin. It is especially effective in the ITCHING VARIETIES; giving instant relief from the itching and smarting sensations and by its germ-destroying properties it exterminates the microbe which is the cause of the eruption, thus curing the disease completely.

Littell's Liquid Sulphur Compound is used in all cases of Eczema, Tetter, Barber's Itch, Psoriasis, Herpes, Rash, Oak and Ivy Poisoning, also for relieving the annoyance caused by chiggers and mosquito bites.

In the treatment of ECZEMA—the most painful and obstinate of all skin diseases—it is one of the most successful remedies known.

ROARK'S Homefolks Boost Him

At a mass meeting held in the Legion Hall at Thorndale attended by the friends and neighbors of Mr. H. M. Roark, now a candidate for the office of County Clerk of Milam County, the following resolutions were unanimously passed:

Whereas our fellow citizen, H. M. Roark, has long been a resident of Milam County, leading an exemplary life as a citizen, neighbor, educator and good man generally, worthy of the esteem of our people, meriting the best that we can render him in return for the splendid service he has rendered, us, and

Whereas he is now an aspirant for the office of County Clerk of Milam County, a position for which he is well qualified and well fitted by education and by temperament, now

Therefore be it resolved that we, the friends, neighbors and supporters of Mr. Roark wish to heartily endorse his candidacy for the office to which he aspires and give the following reasons for our support:

We like him.

We know that he is qualified to fill the office to which he aspires.

He wants it and we want to befriend him.

We want him to have a larger realm for his splendid influence.

If once elected those who are not so well acquainted with him will be pleased that we have pushed forward a man in whom the whole county will have a pride.

Those who are best acquainted with him are his warmest supporters. At home he is supported by the whole citizenship.

He is a genial kindly man with a heart big enough to cheer the whole of this big county.

He is an ardent christian and stands for all that is honest and upright.

We like to see a worthy man promoted, because our most worthy men have come from the ranks.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these resolutions be published in the several newspapers of the county and that organization be perfected looking to his loyal and systematic support from this time until election day July 22nd, and that no effort be spared in carrying forward the glad tidings of his meritorious campaign in every clean legitimate way.

BOB WILEY FOR TAX COLLECTOR

ANNOUNCES HIS CANDIDACY AND ASKS SUPPORT OF THE VOTERS.

To the Voters of Milam County:

I hereby announce as a candidate for the office of Tax Collector of Milam County, subject to the action of the voters in the Democratic primary.

I make this announcement, having entered the race on my own initiative and if elected, will not be bound by any clique or faction, but will be the servant of all the people.

Believing that my knowledge of the tax rolls of the county give me an insight to the duties of tax collector, I feel that I am well qualified to perform the duties of the office. I look upon this as a business proposition and want to put my claims before the people along this line.

The present incumbent has held the office for eight years and I believe that many of the voters are in favor of a change. I hope that they will give me their votes.

I was born and reared in Milam county, my father, Dr. R. S. Wiley, having been one of the pioneers of this county and of Cameron, and I have endeavored to so conduct myself at all times, as to not reflect discredit upon his good name. To that end, have stood for morality and uprightness upon all occasions.

Am making the race with the hope of being able to render some service to my constituents and to this end, ask the vote and support of all the citizens of Milam County.

As the time is short, I may not have opportunity to personally solicit the support of all the voters, so I hope that you will consider this announcement.

COMETS WIN 19 OF 20 GAMES PLAYED

CLUB ATTRACTING STATE FANS WHO PLEAD FOR SERIES

CAMERON GETS FAVORABLE ADVERTISING FOR FAST BALL CLUB.

The Cameron Comets have won 19 out of the 200 games played this season, a record scarcely to be equalled by any club in Texas either amateur or professional.

The Chamber of Commerce in Waco is undertaking to arrange a series of three or five games with Jacksonville to be played in the city of Waco. With this signal honor shown the Cameron Club much favorable advertising is given the city over the state. The management of the team will in all probability arrange the games, also will arrange a series in Austin with the American Legion team there.

The Cameron Comets are setting a fast pace in the race for the Waco News-Tribune championship cup for independent ball in South Central Texas. The Comets won their fifteenth consecutive victory by defeating the Waco Elks of Waco, who are leading the city league. There are a number of reasons why the Comets continue to make things interesting for all the others clubs in this section. The team is well managed. That is always essential, and the club is chock full of harmony. It has a number of stars who work for the interest of the team; they add color and strength to a club.

At first there is the incomparable Mulchay, back of the bat; the high-class, consistent catching and base-pegging of Henderson, and leading the pitching is the brilliant Haislip, formerly of the Philadelphia Nationals, and Cook, the former Southern university star; at short is the sensational Chatham. The outfield would be hard to improve upon—Edens, Partain and Miller. Homer Peel at second sack adds color to the team and has the ability that can be depended upon for pinch-hitting. Peel is a consistent hitter and is leading the team batting 461, with 39 times at bat, getting 18 hits.

Outfielder Partain is the home run king and is a dangerous batter. The whole team has the "guts that gets them the bacon." The truth of the matter is that some of the big league scouts are expected this way to look them over. The Cameron Comets are booked solid for games until the latter part of July. The team is under the management of William Rogers of Cameron and is captained by Moran Henderson, the Comets' backstop.

CAMERON 3; CALDWELL 0.

Uninterrupted in their swing to the pennant the Cameron Comets in the game of Wednesday June 21 against Caldwell scored three runs while the visitors were unable to tack the rubber. Cook pitching for Cameron let the visitors down for six scattered hits while the Comets nicking the Caldwell pitcher, Ehbort, for seven runs but by superior team tactics drew down three runs. In the sixth inning Red Partain who has pushed third place in the batting column hit one on the beek for a home run. This was the feature of the game aside from the pitchers battle.

CAMERON 11; WACO 5.

The crash of bats on horsehide may be said to be the feature of the game here last Thursday when the Comets blazed through in fine fashion beating the Waco Elks by a score of 11 to 5. With fifteen hits the Comets put across 11 runs while the Elks touching Haislip for 11 hits could make but 5 runs out of the situation. Spectacular playing:

CAMERON 5; ROSEBUD 6.

Cameron's remarkable winning streak was broken here on last Friday when the Rosebud Roses nosed out a winning and took the big end of the game 6 to 5. This is the first and only game to have been dropped by the Comets and to have lost this game to Rosebud takes some of the sting out of the defeat because of the splendid record made by the Roses and the close margin by which the game was lost. Lefty Thomas, with the club last year, started the game for Cameron. Superior playing however enabled the Roses to get six runs from 7 hits while the Comets could get only five runs out of 11 hits. Rock Robertson was sent in to relieve Thomas.

CAMERON 9; TEMPLE 5.

A listless game with ten errors, fourteen runs and fourteen hits resulted in a win for Cameron on last Saturday when the Comets met the Temple American Legion team on the local grounds. Fans razed a little but in a general way the day was considered an one of lapse into easy confidence. At no time was Cameron in danger but listless playing caused five errors to be made and the Temple Legion men were able to pile up six scores. Lancaster who wore a Cameron uniform last year pitched for the veterans while Cook and Edens pitched for Cameron.

CAMERON 9; ROSEBUD 3.

Umpire Webb; Time of game 2:15. The Comets in the Sunday game at Rosebud drove three pitchers from the diamond and badly used a fourth hurler for the Roses, winning the game by a score of 9 to 4. The Comets got 15 hits while the Roses nicked only 7. Miller, a new star for the meteoric train of the Comet club, firmly established his hitting reputation with the local fans when he drove a home run with two on bases. Haislip pitching for Cameron was in his usual form and the Roses have a powerful lot of respect for his firing.
